DOINGS IN THE SUPREME COURT

Reverse Decision Rendered in San Juan Railway Roadbed Case.

TRIAL OF METZ-TIERNEY CASE

The supreme court continued its session at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, in the chambers in the capitol building, Santa Fe.

The following business was trans-

Case No. 1093, entitled Florence P. Johnson, admr., appellee, vs. Roman L. Baca, et al. appellants; affirmed and remanded for further proceedings.
McMillen attorney for appellee, and Renchan attorney for appellants.

Case No. 1098, entitled the Colorado Rio Grande Railroad company, appel-lee; reversed and remanded for further proceedings. Ritter, Buchanan, Renehan, Catron and Gortner, and Pergusson, attorneys for appellant and Fergusson, attorneys for appellant, and Wolcott, Vail and Waterman, Mc-Closky, Abbott and Abbott, attorneys for appellee. This is the case in which the appellant alleges that the appellee usurped its right of way which it claimed on the grounds of prior possession, previous surveys and agreements and contracts entered into with the owners of sail land. The right of way in question lies in San Juan county from the Colorado state line to Farmington, a distance of twen-ty-eight miles. The appellant alleges tha the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company built its line in such a man-ner as to cross and recross this right least eight times in the twenty-eight miles, thus rendering it useless to appellant. In some places, It is asserted, the appelle constructed its tracks so that instead of crossing, the yoccupied the right of way of the appellant for 1,000 feet. The case was in appeal from the First judicial district court of San Juan county, where pany had petitioned for an injunction Las Vegas Optic. to restrain the Denver & Rio Grande from ocupying said roadbed. The case was dismissed by the district court and final judgment entered on a demurrer to the complaint because plaintiff had a sufficient remedy at law and that therefore no case in equity would lie. Despite the appeal to the supreme court, the appellee continued to construct and completed its line from Durango, Colorado, to Farmington, giving bond to cover damages to appellant in case the appellant should win its contention in the higher court. Case No. 1108, entitled Andres Candelaria, an infant, by Andrea Cande-laria, his natural and statutory guardian, appellee, vs. Epimenio A. Miera appellant; decision of lower court af-firmed. Burkhart attorney for appellee and Chaves attorney for appellant Case No. 1109, entitled Paulita Candelaria, an infant, by Emigram Cande laria, her natural and statutory guardian, appellee, vs. Epimenio A. Miera, appellant; decision of the lower court Burkhart attorney for ap-pelle, and Chaves attorney for appel-Case No. 1110, entitled Nick Metz, appellant, vs. Martin S. Tierney, appellee; decision of the lower court af-Adams attorney for appellant and Wilkerson and Burkhart attorneys

Case No. 1127, entitled the Territory of New Mexico, appellant, vs. John Mills, et al., appellee; submitted on briefs Prichard and Hervey attorneys for appellant and Gatewood attorney Court then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.
